Tewatohnhi'saktha Announces Scholarship Fund Recipient

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE: Kahnawà:ke (September 15, 2014) The Board of Directors announces that Joseph Jocks has been chosen to be the recipient of the 2014 Tewatohnhi'saktha Scholarship Fund in the amount of $3,000. Joseph Jocks has been accepted at Ottawa University in the honor program where he will be studying in Commerce and specializing in Accounting. Tewatohnhi'saktha presented an initial cheque in the amount of $1,000 to Mr. Joseph Jocks on Friday, September 12, 2014.

The Scholarship Fund was established to generate interest in a field of study where currently, only 1% of Kahnawake students are enrolled. The award is given to undergraduate students completing their degrees in Commerce, Information Technologies, Administration and related fields.

"Mr. Jocks was found to be an excellent candidate for the scholarship program. We are proud of his accomplishments thus far and wish nothing but the best for him in his future studies and endeavours in the workforce." said Tewatohnhi'saktha Board of Directors Chairperson Lionel Jacobs.
