Kahnawà:ke Tourism launches NEW website

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE: Kahnawà:ke (February 5, 2016) Kahnawà:ke tourism launches its new website, www.kahnawaketourism.com in an effort to attract more tourists to the community.

“We wanted to have a site that would pique the interest of potential tourists”, says Allison Jacobs, Interim Tourism Development Agent.

The site shows

- Local attractions such as monuments, historical sites, and museums
- Restaurants, shops, and accommodations
- Community events and activities

“Tourists who view the site prior to their visit get a better idea of what they want to see and do prior to their arrival in Kahnawà:ke. They can contact us via the website or by phone and we can prepare complete itineraries to make their visit memorable” says Allison.
