Tewatohnhi'saktha Employment & Training changed to Workforce Development

For Immediate Release—Kahnawà:ke (September 10, 2019) Tewatohnhi'saktha Employment & Training has now been changed to Workforce Development following the change to our Mandate on July 17, 2019. Over the next few months you will notice this name change in various publications, on our website and in the media.

“We will still provide all our services to the community; the name change best describes what we do. Additionally, in order to be progressive and innovative, we will be looking to develop new programs, initiatives and partnerships to help our clients enter the workforce.” said Angie Marquis, Director of Workforce Development.
