COURSE: 602-1K1-AB

TITLE: French for Indigenous Peoples I

HOURS: 45

SECTION(S): one (1)

EDUCATION:

- Bachelor Enseignement du français langue seconde, Linguistique, Littérature française or equivalent degree.

In addition to the above:Successful applicants must:

- Demonstrate knowledge of and commitment to culturally relevant, sensitive, and appropriate pedagogy.
- Demonstrate in-depth knowledge of Eeyou-Eenou culture, history, society and rights.
- Several years' experience teaching French as a second language at the post – secondary level preferred.
- Preference given to candidates having direct lived experience in and knowledge of Eeyou-Eenou communities, with experience teaching in Cree classrooms and Cree speaking as assets, or, as a secondary consideration, having experience with Indigenous education and teaching Indigenous students.
- Bilingual (French/Cree) candidates preferred.
- English communication skills an asset.
- On-line teaching experience preferred.

The courses will take place online.

Also, throughout the semester, teachers are required to be available to attend cultural training, offer office hours to students, and participate in regular program meetings. Therefore, additional time up to 62 hours will be paid through an additional non-credit contract.

Note: The selection committee may, exceptionally, recommend to the College that pertinent additional professional and/or industrial experience be considered in lieu of the stated minimum educational requirement. Education superior to the stated minimum requirement may be substituted for professional/industrial experience at the discretion of the selection committee.

N.B. Contracts are contingent upon sufficient student enrollment in each course.

Starting date, day/time and location for each course to be determined by the Centre for Continuing Education.
