

KAHNAWÀ:KE TOURISM?

Green Corn Agricultural Fair

On August 19th, Tourism teamed up with Kahnawà:ke Collective Impact to host the Green Corn Agricultural Fair. It was a nice event to showcase the community’s gardening skills. We were able to share sturgeon prepared by our own Eric ‘Dirt’ McComber. The Food Sovereignty Action Team served bite size traditional food samples for visitors to enjoy. There were goats and chickens on site to teach people how to properly care for them.

Four participants entered the homemade jam competition, with Tekaronhiahkha:sions Rice winning 1st place for her strawberry jam and 2nd place for her raspberry jam. Dave McComber and members of Iontionnhéhkwen Wilderness Skills showcased survival skills; everyone enjoyed learning how to make a fire using different materials. Elaine Delaronde shared traditional plant knowledge with the participants. Compost Council of Canada was also there to talk about the importance of composting.

2nd Annual Kahnawà:ke Brewing Company & Friends Festival

On August 26th, Tourism participated in the Kahnawà:ke Brewing Company’s & Friends Festival. Several bands performed throughout the day; many food trucks and vendors were on site.
